

Canadian Hospice Palliative Care Conference

Congrès canadien de soins palliatifs

Navigating Safe Pathways To Quality Hospice Palliative Care

ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND AND LABRADOR SEPTEMBER 8-11, 2011
Delta St. John's and Conference Centre

Thursday September 8th Opening Plenary Quality Improvement: Matching Solutions to the Problems

Presenter(s): Kaveh Shojania

Kaveh Shojania is a practising general internist at Sunnybrook Health Sciences centre in Toronto, who also holds a Government of Canada Research Chair in Patient Safety and Quality Improvement, and is Director of the University of Toronto Centre for Patient Safety. His research focuses on identifying evidence based patient safety interventions and effective strategies for translating evidence into practice.

Saturday September 10th Plenary Living with Integrity in the Journey Through Hospice Palliative Care

Presenter(s): Bashir Jiwani

Bashir Jiwani is Ethicist and Director, Fraser Health Ethics Services, where his role involves clinical ethics consultation, ethics based organizational policy analysis, ethics infrastructure development and support, and ongoing ethics education and programming. Bashir is an experienced speaker, having done hundreds of workshops and presentations across the country and internationally on issues in ethics and health ethics both for academic audiences and to health care administrators, providers, patients and the lay public.

Friday September 9th Plenary Navigating the Troubled Waters in Turbulent Times: Hospice Palliative Care Advocacy today and in the years to come

Presenter(s): Bernard J. Lapointe, Sharon Baxter (responder)

Bernard J. Lapointe is Eric M. Flanders Chair in Palliative Care, McGill University. Director, Palliative Care McGill Chief, The Marjorie & Gerald Bronfman Division of Palliative Care, Jewish General Hospital. He is an Associate Professor, Department of Oncology and Department of Family Medicine at McGill University. He served as president of CHPCA and of the Réseau québécois de soins palliatifs. In 2007, he received the Award of Excellence of the Canadian Hospice Palliative Care Association.

Challenging Issues Panels

First Nations - Is coming home to die in a First Nations community possible?

Pediatrics - "When is enough, enough: Decision making in Pediatrics"

Advance Care Planning - Advance Care Planning: Black, White and Grey

Systems Approach to Care - Why is Integration Necessary?

Marginalized Populations - Extending Palliative Practice to Vulnerable Population: The Challenges and Rewards.

Exploring Self Care in Hospice Palliative Care - Resistance, Resilience and Rejuvenation of Self in the Ever-Changing Health Care Environment and Palliative End of Life Care Communities of Care

Knowledge Translation - The Importance of Knowledge Translation in everything we do!

Saturday September 10 | Banquet - "A Shockin' Good Time!"

Enjoy an evening of excellent local fare and the warmth, charm and wit of Newfoundland and Labrador's highest ranking officer in history, General Rick Hillier, Former Chief of the Defence Staff for Canadian Forces. Also prepare to join in and be swept away by the talents of the infamous "Spirit of Newfoundland" - a local professionally trained troop of talented musicians, vocalists and actors who display their distinctive Newfoundland heritage by singing passionate, vibrant, harmony-filled songs while also performing and engaging the audience in humorous scenarios bringing unique characters to life. Get ready to be wonderfully entertained in the well known Newfoundland hand clapping, toe tapping, belly aching style of a Shockin' Good Time.

WWW.CONFERENCE.CHPCA.NET

Michael Peterson | 1-800-668-2785 ext. 225 | mpeterson@bruyere.org

Newfoundland and Labrador
Palliative Care Association

Canadian Hospice Palliative Care Association
Association canadienne de soins palliatifs

PARTNER LEVEL SPONSORS

Canada's Research-Based Pharmaceutical Companies R&D Les compagnies de recherche pharmaceutique du Canada

Program approved for 20.25 Mainpro-M1 credits!

DIGNITY LEVEL SPONSOR

COMFORT LEVEL SPONSOR

