Department of Health Science
University of Saskatchewan

PARTICIPANTS NEEDED FOR RESEARCH IN

spiritual care and neurological health.

We are looking for volunteers to take part in a study titled "Exploring spiritual care experiences among neurological patients in Saskatoon: A qualitative exploratory study."

Who can participate?

- Adults ≥18 years of age
- Diagnosed with neurological conditions such as stroke, Parkinson's, spinal cord injury, multiple sclerosis within past 5 years.
- Received/engaged in any one spiritual care services (such as chaplain visit, use of a chapel or multifaith room, private prayer, meditation, or reading spiritual texts) while in St. Paul's Hospital, Royal University Hospital or Saskatoon City Hospital.
- Able to communicate in English.

Who cannot participate?

- Significant cognitive impairment
- Speech and/or language difficulties
- Traumatic brain injury

- Take part in a one-time online interview lasting up to 45 minutes between July and Dec 2026.
- Share your experiences and perspectives regarding spiritual care during the time of hospitalization.
- Provide consent to audio record the interviews for research purposes.

Participant Incentives

Participants will have the opportunity to enter a draw for one of three gift cards of their choice.

How to participate

Contact no.: 306-966-8010

Contact name: Miriam Pathak

Email: fda042@mail.usask.ca

Your participation will not affect your access to care or services, relationship with the researchers, or how you are treated in any way.

This study has been approved by the University of Saskatchewan Behavioural Research Ethics Board.

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

BE WHAT THE WORLD NEEDS